We have just wrapped up our 2012-2013 year of activities. This meeting was a good chance to reflect on the last year, meet some of our new members and discuss our goals for the next year.

People come to Wired4Music for many different reasons. To kick off the meeting, we asked our members who have been involved for a while to describe to our new members what Wired4Music is to them. We then asked our new members to describe what brought them to Wired4Music.

We discussed some of the things that we did in the past year:

- Launching our new website
- Musiclearninglive! 2012 panel
- BBC3 Consultation
- Would Like to Meet
- Roundhouse Rising Futures
- Adobe Youth Voices Film

We then surveyed our members, asking about their most memorable project, the ways they feel most supported by Wired4Music and ways that we can continue to support them in the future. We asked our new members to describe what they would like to get out of Wired4Music, and the best ways for us to help them.

After dinner, we took some time to discuss what is coming up:

- The next meeting of our new vocal group (time/date TBC)

- A samba drumming and leadership workshop (June)
- Arts Award Silver: work days in the Spring and Summer
- Writing a manifesto! What do young music-minded people across London want for themselves? (Soon!)
- Performance opportunities, including a number at City Hall

We looked back at our pledges from one year ago, and discussed whether or not we met them. We then made pledges for the following year:

- Keiran: perform, get involved with the samba workshop
- Cee-Jay: perform and network with other members
- Haleemat: perform and meet new people
- Darius: make more videos
- Funmi: help out with graphic design
- Zachariah: recruit new members, help out with events
- Aysha: get more involved and bring more people
- Michael: get involved in social enterprise opportunities
